

Hi guys. So I wanted to share the story of how the Rapture Puzzle book came to be and a little of my testimony with you. I was brought up in a Christian home and became a Christian at the age of 13. I had a radical encounter with the Lord that led me to surrender my life to Him and I was able to hear His voice from the day I accepted Him as my Savior. I have now been a Christian for over 34 years and have been in full-time ministry for over 25 years serving as a missionary in Asia. I have an amazing husband and 5 wonderful children who all love Jesus.

The relationship that I have with the Lord has led me through many decisions I have made throughout my life. Hearing His voice and following what He has told me to do has led me to where I am at today. I could give numerous examples of how the Lord spoke to me to do something and I obeyed and it led to great reward or He told me that something would take place and it happened exactly as He said it would or instances where He just led me to do something or not to do something and it turned out to be the right decision. I cannot tell you of any incidences where He spoke to me and it was not true or led me into making a terrible decision that I later regretted. He has always led me into all truth and made my path straight as I have followed His voice.

The Lord speaks to me as a friend and has told me on numerous occasions that I can hear His voice more clearly than most other believers. I do not say this to boast or brag, just to let you know that I do hear Him speak and that He speaks clearly to me and I can quote word for word what He says to me because that is how clearly He speaks.

So I want to share with you what took place in December 2000 that all led to me writing and finishing the Rapture Puzzle Book. This book has been a work in progress and I started writing it back in 2012, so it took almost 9 years to complete. I am still adding small sections to the book as the Lord continues to show me things. I started studying and researching all the way back in 2000 so it took me over 20 years to put all of the pieces of the puzzle in place.

Anyway, back to December 2000. This is when the Lord started to give me the puzzle pieces. At the time, I had no idea that He was giving me pieces to a puzzle and it would not be until around January 2013 that I would finally figure that out. For 12 years, I felt so confused and even as if the Lord had deceived me somehow because I did not understand that He was only giving me puzzle pieces that would all come together to point to very specific dates for the rapture and Second Coming of Christ to the earth. From December 2000 until December 2012, I thought the Lord was showing me the timing of the rapture and did not realize He was only giving me pieces to a big puzzle that would eventually all fit together.

So, in December 2000, the Lord came to me while I was praying and told me that He was coming to me as He came to Solomon and would give me one thing. He told me to think carefully before I decided because He would give me whatever I asked of Him. After considering for some time what to ask, I came back to Him with my 2 greatest desires. The first was that when I stood before Him on Judgment Day that I would stand before Him with a pure heart and that He would be pleased with how I had lived my life. My second greatest desire was that He would use my life to reach millions of people for His Kingdom. I could not decide which desire was greater until I thought of the verse that says you can gain the whole world but lose your own soul. I considered that it could be possible for me to win the world for Christ and in the process lose my own soul. So I told the Lord that if I could only choose one thing, it would be the first. He told me that I had chosen wisely.

He then asked me, "If you are the least in My Kingdom for all eternity and if everyone throughout all eternity thinks very little of you, but if I am pleased with you, would that be OK with you?" That was a very hard question for me to answer as I wanted to be considered great in His Kingdom and did not want anyone to look down on me, especially for all eternity. But I realized what was truly important was that the Lord was pleased with me and that it did not matter if anyone else was. So, I finally told Him, "Yes, that would be OK with me."

Very shortly after this took place, I had a dream about my grandma who had died about 9 years earlier. I was so close to her and she had a tremendous influence on my life and decision to follow the Lord. The dream was so real and it seemed as if I had spent the entire night just talking to her and with her. When I woke up, my heart felt so happy as if I had really been with her. One thing we used to do together often was put puzzles together. She loved doing puzzles. I didn't love puzzles that much at the time, but I just loved spending time with her so would join her in those huge puzzles that would take weeks to finish. My love for puzzles started during those many hours we worked on them together. Little did I know at that time that the Lord was about to give me the greatest puzzle of all time to put together and that He was about to give me the first piece to that puzzle.

Shortly after the dream, the Lord spoke to me and said that January 1st is the Gentile Feast of Trumpets. I was not much into Bible prophecy, but I had heard about the Feast of Trumpets and knew some Christians taught that the rapture would happen on the Feast of Trumpets, so I wondered if the Lord was telling me that the rapture would happen on January 1st, which was just days away. I was very excited. Nothing happened and I wondered what He meant. On January 4th, at around 1 am, the Lord spoke to me and said these words: "You will be as John the Baptist and will write something that will help save millions of people from the coming deception. Just as My voice is like a trumpet and the last day of Creation that I spoke was the 6th day, so also at the end of the 6th day and start of the 7th, the last trumpet will sound. Wait up for Me to come to you at the end of the 6th day." I remember waking up my husband and telling him what the Lord has spoken to me. I then went downstairs and called my sisters living in America and told them what the Lord had said. I was overwhelmed. I remember feeling like Mary, when the angel appeared to her and told her that she would give birth to Jesus, the Son of God. I felt like, why did the Lord choose me? I am not anyone special, just an ordinary person. The Lord was not only giving me the first desire of my heart but also the second. He was going to use me to help save millions of people.

I wrote a letter and sent it out to many end-time prophecy ministries and people that I knew telling them that the rapture would take place at the end of January 6 or start of January 7. I assumed that was what the Lord was telling me and that somehow by just writing that letter, millions of people would come to know the Lord. I had no idea at the time that He was just giving me puzzle pieces and starting me on a 21-year journey. I waited up on January 6th and was just having a wonderful conversation with the Lord. I can remember telling Him just before midnight that I was starting to get sleepy and asking when He would come. He told me just to wait a little longer. A few minutes after midnight, I was looking out the window sitting on my couch when suddenly my entire body began to shake violently. This lasted for maybe a minute or so. It started suddenly and ended suddenly. My first thought was that perhaps the dead in Christ had just resurrected and now we were about to be raptured. I asked the Lord what the shaking was and He told me to just wait. A minute or so later, my body began to shake violently again. During this second shaking, my mouth began to tingle, like the feeling you get when you foot falls asleep, but the feeling was in my mouth, and especially around my lips. I asked the Lord why my lips were tingling and He said it represented when Isaiah saw the Lord and the coals touched his lips and his sin was atoned for. The shaking stopped suddenly. I was overwhelmed and wondered what it all meant. I wondered if the rapture had just happened and I had been left behind. I had so many questions. I felt the Lord wrap His loving arms around me and felt like He was hugging me. He assured me of His love for me and told me that I needed to study the Jewish festivals and that I could go to bed.

I assumed He would explain everything to me the next morning so I went to bed and fell asleep. The next day came and went with no explanation. And everyday came and went for nearly 12 years with no explanation. I knew what the Lord had said and I studied the feasts and I tried to figure everything out, but I just couldn't. I felt very alone and confused during those 12 years and the Lord just kept telling me to wait and that one day all of my questions would be answered and I would understand everything. The only thing that really happened during those 12 years was that the Church of the Nativity was raided in the Spring of 2002, 1290 days before the Day of Atonement in 2005. The Lord showed me that this was the temple fortress that was desecrated by armed forces and was the holy place referred to by Jesus in Matthew 24. I knew that one day, the abomination that causes desolation would take place there. Other than that, I knew the 7th day was significant and also discovered that we were living at the end of 6000 years since the Creation, ready to start the New Millennium. I still did not know that all of these things were pieces in a puzzle.

The Lord began to speak to me again about these things in August 2012, which is when I started my YouTube channel. He clearly pointed me to the 7th day of Tabernacles. Once again, I assumed He was telling me that the rapture would happen on that day. When it did not, I became angry and asked the Lord why He was deceiving me. I was so hurt. I had waited for almost 12 years and when He finally leads me to a date, nothing happened again. After a couple of days of being angry and hurt, I came back to the Lord and told Him I was sorry for my terrible attitude and asked for His forgiveness. He asked if I was ready to continue. I was shocked. I thought I was finished and it was all just some sort of test to see if I would obey and follow Him even if it seemed that He was deceiving me. So I told Him that yes, I was ready to continue – still totally unaware that all of these things were puzzle pieces that He was giving to me that would eventually all make sense several years later. The next date He pointed me to was the 7th day of Hanukkah. I'm sure you can already guess – nothing happened on that day either. But by this time, I was starting to get the sense that it was leading somewhere.

On February 14, 2013, I went to my ministry center and someone came into my office and gave me a gift. They said someone had just stopped by and asked that the gift be given to me. One of my daughters was in the office with me and asked what I thought it was. I just blurted out, "It's a puzzle." I have no idea how I knew that, but I just felt that it was a puzzle, even though I had never been given a puzzle before as a gift. I opened it, and sure enough, it was a puzzle. I thought, well that's strange. No name. No idea who it was from. I went home and put it together in just a few hours. It was the strangest puzzle I had ever done with no corner pieces or edge pieces and all of the pieces were different shapes and sizes. Some of the pieces were huge and others were tiny. It was a beautiful puzzle and as I looked at it, I felt the Lord's presence. I remembered my grandmother and the dream I had had. I realized it was Valentine's Day. And that's when I realized this was all a puzzle and the Lord was just giving me one piece at a time and that one day, it would all come together and make perfect sense.

It was in the same month of February 2013, when Mr. Obama announced his plan to go to Jerusalem. There was a lot of talk on some prophecy websites about him possibly standing at the Temple Mount and that being the abomination of desolation. I started to read that some people thought that 2009 was the start of Daniel's 70th week and saw that Mr. Obama had been chosen as the Nobel Peace Prize winner on the 7th day of Tabernacles in 2009 and then given the award just a few hours before the start of Kislev 24. I saw that Haggai 2 pointed to those exact dates in reference to the Lord shaking the heavens and the earth and bringing the desired of all nations to Himself. I counted 1260 days from when Mr. Obama was chosen as the Nobel Peace Prize winner and came to March 22, 2013. I said to myself, if Mr. Obama goes to Bethlehem and stands at the grotto in the Church of the Nativity on that date, then that is the abomination of desolation and that means desolation is right after that, which should include the rapture event. But at that time, Mr. Obama had only mentioned about going to Jerusalem and nothing about going to Bethlehem. When he finally announced his plans to go to the Church of the Nativity, I could not believe it. It was finally happening.

Some of you may be wondering how in the world Mr. Obama standing at the grotto was an abomination to the Lord and also how it stopped the daily sacrifice. Well, every single day, hundreds and often thousands of people from all over the world line up at the Church of the Nativity to offer a sacrifice of praise and offering of thanksgiving to the Lord for coming to the earth to pay for their sins and give them eternal life. This is a sacrifice that is pleasing to the Lord. On the day that Mr. Obama and his entourage went there, no one else was allowed to enter. The sacrifice of praise and offering of thanksgiving stopped on that day, and I can assure you that he did not go there to offer his praise or gratitude to Jesus for coming to the earth. While we do not know what might have happened as he stood at the grotto, what I am certain of is that his heart was not humble and he did not offer any thanks to Jesus or acknowledge him as the Lord. I'm sure one day we will all know exactly what Mr. Obama said, whether it was out loud or only in his private thoughts, that was such an abomination to the Lord on that day. Whatever it was, it was such an abomination to the Lord that it started a 40-day countdown to the desolation of America and much of the world.

After this abomination took place, the Lord then pointed me to the 7th day of Unleavened Bread and showed me that the Jewish calendar was off by a month in 2013. I counted the days, and saw that it was 40 days from when the abomination was going to take place until when the desolation would occur – He was giving a 40-day grace period to America just like He did to Ninevah. I counted 1290 days from the abomination date and it reached the Feast of Trumpets in 2016. I counted 1260 days from the true 7th day of Unleavened Bread and it reached the Day of Atonement in 2016. I counted 1335 days from the same day and it reached the start of Hanukkah in 2016. Daniel 12 tells us that those who reach the end of the 1335 days will be blessed and Haggai 2 tells us that up until the 24th day of the 9th month, or Hanukkah Eve, no fruit is found on the fig tree, but that from this day forward we will be blessed. The blessed day is the first day of Hanukkah at the end of a 1335-day count and this will be the second rapture, followed by the Second Coming of Christ to the earth a week later. These are the second and third woe events mentioned in Revelation. All of the numbers fit. I was so excited. But May 2, 2013, came and went without any rapture or desolation event. Once again, I was so confused. But too many pieces of the puzzle fit together for me to just throw out the puzzle and say it was not right. I had to be missing something, but what was it?

About 5 months later, in October 2013, I was once again expressing my frustration to the Lord and asking Him why He did not come when the Scriptures so clearly pointed to May 2, 2013. I said, "Ninevah repented and you delayed your judgment. This puzzle only makes sense if America repented, but they did not repent, so why did you delay Your judgment?" The Lord replied, "Are you sure there was no repentance?" I said, "Yes I am quite certain I would have heard about it if America had repented." He said, "You are missing something important. Find it." That gave me hope – maybe I had missed something. So I typed into Google something like America repents May 2013 and found a site that was talking about this 3-day period of prayer and fasting that started on April 30 and lasted until May 2, 2013. On April 24, 2013, a 3-day fast was called by the leaders of the church around the world and at least 28 nations participated in this fast. I saw how that believers from all over the world had cried out to the Lord on those 3 days asking for Him to have mercy on America. April 30th was the National Day of Repentance in America and May 2nd was the National Day of Prayer in America. A worldwide cry went up to the Lord for 3 days asking for God to have mercy on America right at the end of the 40-day probationary period. I cried. I laughed. I had found the missing piece. Then the Lord said, "Remember Esther." I thought of how she was the chosen virgin Bride who represents the Bride of Christ and how she asked her people to fast for 3 days because they were all about to be killed. On the third day of the fast she risked her life and approached the King to try to save her people from annihilation and in the end, her request was granted and her people were spared. I saw the foreshadowing of the story of Jonah and of Esther and realized that the Lord was delaying His judgment. And then I saw in Matthew 25 and Revelation 10 that this delay is found in the Scriptures. So I set out to figure out when this delay would end.

At some point during this time period, the Lord gave me the puzzle piece of the 4-year delay found in the parable of the fig tree. I didn't even realize until years later that Jesus actually points to the parable of the fig tree in Matthew 24, which is the chapter all about the rapture and Second Coming. I kept putting this piece in the wrong place and kept pointing to 2016 as the Second Coming event. I had some people write to ask where was the sign of Matthew 24 in 2016 – Jesus clearly gave us the sign to watch for that would happen during the Second Coming event, which is that the sun would be darkened, moon would not give its light and stars would fall from the sky. I could not find that sign anywhere near Hanukkah of 2016 and I was confused. All of the pieces pointed to 2016 as the end of Daniel's 70th week and Second Coming of Christ. The Lord was simply delaying His judgment as He said He would do in Matthew 25 and in Revelation 10 and shortening the days of the tribulation as He said in Matthew 24. So why was that sign not found during Hanukkah in 2016? It was the only piece I could not figure out.

When Hanukkah of 2016 came and went, I figured it was all over. Obviously, we were not in Daniel's 70th week yet and all of these events that took place between 2009 and 2013 must have just been a foreshadow of what was going to take place in the future. But somehow I knew that was not right and I knew the Lord had shown me these things and that I must be still missing something. It was January of 2017 when I finally put the puzzle piece of the parable of the fig tree in the right spot. It had never occurred to me that the Lord would actually stop Daniel's 70th week at the mid-point and give a 4-year delay to see if America would bear fruit or not. That fourth year was an election year and the Lord wanted to give America one more chance to choose a leader who would attempt to turn the nation back to morality and Biblical standards. The Lord stopped Daniel's 70th week right on the 7th day of Unleavened Bread in 2013 on the National Day of Prayer in America, on the third day of the 3-day fast of the Bride of Christ around the world where they cried out for Him to have mercy on America, and then He restarted it on the 7th day of Unleavened Bread in 2017, during the Year of Jubilee. I was so excited when I finally put this puzzle piece where it belonged. But how could I be sure? I knew there was only one piece that had been missing in 2016 – the sign of the sun being darkened, moon not giving its light and stars falling from the sky. I looked and sure enough, there was a total solar eclipse on the second day of Hanukkah in 2020. I knew that the Second Coming would happen during Hanukkah at the end of the 1335-day count and that Jesus said immediately after the Great Tribulation ended, these 3 signs would happen. So, I had one of the 3 signs on the correct date. But there was no lunar eclipse, so I was discouraged. I went to bed that night and the Lord asked me to think of something that could cause the moon to not give its light other than an eclipse. It took me awhile, but I realized that once a month the moon gives no light. The first thing I did the next morning when I woke up was to check on google to see if December 14, 2020, was the day when the moon would give no light, and guess what? It was! I was getting even more excited! I had no idea what the stars falling from the sky meant so I thought maybe it is just referring to an alien invasion or all of us coming back with Christ to the earth on December 13th. Then someone wrote to me and told me that the Geminid meteor shower peaks on December 13 and 14 every year and I checked and sure enough, it was true. We had the sign that Jesus told us would take place at the Second Coming of Christ to the earth – the sun would be darkened, moon not give its light and stars fall from the sky.

So, I could see that Daniel's 70th week ended in 2020. But when would the firstfruits rapture take place?

In Matthew 24, the chapter where Jesus speaks to us about the end time events, He reminds us to learn the parable of the fig tree. What is the parable of the fig tree? It's a simple story that Jesus told about a fig tree that was given 3 years to bear fruit. The owner comes after 3 years looking for fruit, but cannot find any and wants the gardener to cut it down. But the gardener asks for one final year to tend to the tree before cutting it down and the owner agrees. So, the tree is given a total of 4 years to bear fruit. The tree in this parable is the same tree that we find in Daniel 4, which is a dream given to Nebuchadnezzar about a tree that is going to be cut down. This tree was so huge and was beautiful and fed the world. This tree is America. Our first National Monument is called Devil's Tower and it looks just like a huge tree trunk that has been cut down. The Lord left us all of these signs so that we would know the parable is talking about America, the New Israel of the last days, the nation that fed the world, not just physically, but spiritually. America, the great nation that has turned away from God, the boastful queen of Revelation 18, who in one day, her plagues will overtake her. This is speaking about the Day of the Lord, the final day of Daniel's 70th week. It is during this day, which is a year in length, that she should have been cut down and destroyed, never to rise again.

So, going back to the parable, why was the tree given a fourth year to bear fruit? Well, the fourth year would have been from the 7th day of Unleavened Bread in 2016 to the 7th day of Unleavened Bread in 2017. What happened during this year in America, from the Spring of 2016 to the Spring of 2017? It was an election year in America. For 8 years, America had chosen a president who stood for and represented everything that is anti-Biblical and anti-Christian. Would America continue down this path, or would the nation put a man into power who stood for Christian and Biblical principles? America chose right and the fig tree started to bear fruit once again. The 1260 and 1335-day counts of Daniel and Revelation restarted again on the 7th day of Unleavened Bread in 2017 and ended on the Day of Atonement in 2020 and the start of Hanukkah in 2020. So, if that is true, why did the first rapture event not take place on the 7th day of Unleavened Bread in 2017? The woman of Revelation 12, or the Bride of Christ, is to be taken to a place prepared for her by God for 1260 days out of the serpent's reach. This is where we start taking more pieces of the puzzle and putting them in place. Jesus told us that unless the days were shortened, no flesh would survive what is coming. He told us in Matthew 25 and Revelation 10 that the coming of the Bridegroom would be delayed. We already saw that there was a 4-year delay, but that delay did not involve the shortening of the days. The second delay started on the 7th day of Unleavened Bread in 2017 and involved the shortening of the days of Great Tribulation for the left behind saints. Jesus told us that it was for the sake of the elect that the days would be shortened. It is for His left behind saints that He is shortening these days, in order that some will survive the terrible days ahead. We know that His heart is for the lost and He would leave the 99 to find that one lost sheep. He is holding back the forces of darkness for as long as possible, in order that more people will come into His Kingdom and those who are not taken in the firstfruits rapture will not have years of suffering and tribulation and all be killed for not taking the Mark of the Beast.

So back to the question... why did the first rapture event not take place on the 7th day of Unleavened Bread in 2017? In the parable of the fig tree, the cutting down of the tree is dependent on whether fruit is found on the tree. Jesus came looking for fruit on a fig tree on the 11th day of Nisan. The judgment was to have started on the 21st day of Nisan. Was there anything that happened during that 10-day period that would have once again delayed God's judgment and started the shortening of days that Jesus spoke of? On the third day of Unleavened Bread, or the Feast of Firstfruits in 2017, President Trump signed a bill that would defund Planned Parenthood. This was the first time ever that any US President had done anything to try to stop abortion since it was legalized in 1973. We see over and over again in the Old Testament where it is mentioned that the king did evil in the eyes of the Lord or the king did what was right in the eyes of the Lord. It is very important to the Lord what the leadership of a nation does and He gives blessing or withholds blessing based on whether the leaders do what is evil or what is right. What President Trump and the leaders of America did during the Feast of Unleavened Bread and during the Feast of Hanukkah in 2017, spared the nation and the entire world from God's judgment and helped to shorten the days of tribulation. When Mr. Obama stood in the holy place on the 11th day of Nisan, not worshiping Jesus or humbling Himself before his creator, this act was a terrible abomination to the Lord. God was going to bring about tremendous judgment on America because of this act, and the many other acts leading up to this of the Obama administration. But the prayers of God's people around the world held back His judgment at that time and the acts of the new leadership of America held back His judgment once again in 2017. But He shows us in His Word exactly how many days this judgment will be withheld from the first delay until the final delay. The whole story is unveiled in His Word and is now being unsealed, just as Daniel 12:4 told us it would in the last days.

If you read the Rapture Puzzle book or watch The Rapture Puzzle book on video or even the summary of the book, I go into detail about the next delay that took place during Hanukkah of 2017. It involved the stance that America took concerning Jerusalem being the capital of Israel. That was the third delay and the days of Great Tribulation continued to be shortened. This delay ended during Hanukkah 2019, when the Day of the Lord began, or the start of the final day of Daniel's 70th week. The fourth delay started during Hanukkah of 2019. The 7th day of Daniel's 70th week was from Hanukkah 2019 to Hanukkah 2020. Everything pointed to this year as being the start of God's judgment on the earth, the final day of Daniel's 70th week. When nothing happened, the Lord told me to look for the sign of the sun being darkened, moon not giving its light and stars falling from the sky in December 2021 during Hanukkah. Sure enough, it is there. We have a total solar eclipse on December 4, the new moon (when it gives no light) also on December 4 and the first day of the Geminid meteor shower on December 4, which is actually even more significant than the day it peaks since the day before (December 3), the stars are not falling. December 4, 2021, is the 6th day of Hanukkah. The Lord had already shown me that the 7th day of Hanukkah would be the Second Coming of Christ to the earth, as was foreshadowed by the crowning of the virgin Queen Esther on that date. So, this also fit better in the puzzle, with the Lord gathering His elect from the ends of the heavens on the 6th day of Hanukkah to return to the earth on the 7th day of Hanukkah. But how could the Lord add another day to Daniel's 70th week and why would He do this?

He then reminded me of how an 8th day was added to the Feast of Tabernacles and how that the Feast of Unleavened Bread and Tabernacles mirrored each other, except that in Tabernacles the 7th day Sabbath is pushed back to the 8th day. He reminded me that He rested on the seventh day of Creation, foreshadowing how He would rest on the 7th day. And I began to understand that God could not bring His judgment in 2020, because President Trump was still in office and was acting as a restrainer of God's judgment on the earth. He had to be removed before God's judgment could begin in 2021. This is why the Scriptures mention "the last trump". It is another clue the Lord left for us that after Trump leaves office, God's judgment can begin.

So, here we are in 2021, the 8th day of Daniel's 70th week. The Day of the Lord. He has continued to delay His judgment and shorten the days for the sake of His elect. For those of you wondering how He can delay when there is an appointed time, I will just say this – there IS an appointed time and it is set and has been set from all eternity. God isn't changing the plan. The delays are simply something He put into His end-time puzzle to show the world how gracious, merciful and long-suffering He is toward the world. There have been numerous times when the Lord could have brought His judgment that would have fulfilled the Scriptures, but He has continued to delay in order that more people would come into His Kingdom and to make the days of the Great Tribulation as short as Scripturally possible. He is a loving Father, not an angry Father. He is angry at sin, but loving toward all He has made, not wanting anyone to perish but all to have eternal life through His Son.

We are now down to just a few months before the Second Coming of Christ to the earth on December 5, 2021. There is little time left. We can see in Revelation 14 that there are 2 harvest events. The first one involves firstfruits being offered to the Lord and the second one is associated with the grape harvest, which would point us to either the Feast of Tabernacles or Hanukkah (second Tabernacles festival). These are the first 2 woe events of Revelation. I believe the most likely date for the first rapture event will be October 24, 2021, and a second rapture on November 28/29, 2021, at the start of Hanukkah. Please read my book to understand why I believe the Scriptures point us to these 2 dates.

The Scriptures do not teach that all Christians are taken in the firstfruits rapture. Those who are pure in heart and truly love Christ with all their heart, soul, mind and strength and love others as themselves are those who will be harvested. There will be a time of purification for the left behind saints who did not truly put Christ first and allowed sin into their lives that separated them from the Lord. It is during this time of Great Tribulation that the Mark of the Beast, or COVID vaccination, will be mandated. The Scripture is clear that those who take this mark will be eternally lost. If you have already been deceived into taking this “vaccine”, please repent and I believe the Lord may have mercy on you if you did it in complete ignorance and refuse to sign up for their “vaccine passport” or “QR code” or whatever they come up with to allow you to buy or sell if you have been vaccinated. Choose to suffer along with the “unvaccinated” and show your repentant heart by refusing to accept their evil scheme. It is a final test of obedience and willingness to lay down your life. Immediately after this Great Tribulation has ended, the sun is darkened, moon does not give its light and the stars fall from the sky on December 4, 2021.

I believe aliens from the Abyss will show up at the time of the firstfruits rapture to deceive those left behind. Asteroids or meteorites will start slamming into the earth causing massive destruction and tsunamis and numerous other catastrophes that Scriptures warn us about all start taking place this coming October 2021. People will be too afraid to leave their homes or go to work, just as Jesus told us that a time was coming when no man could work. This will cause massive economic collapse, far worse than even what we are seeing right now, and famine will set in for hundreds of millions of people all over the world who are totally unprepared for what is coming.

I hope and pray that you can see in this puzzle the incredible love and mercy of God, shortening the days of Great Tribulation from 42 months to just 42 days. In Revelation 12, we read that the devil is full of fury because he knows that his time is short. If the Lord had given him 3 ½ years to destroy this planet, not one person would still be alive to witness the return of the Lord to earth in December 2021. Rather than the left-behind saints having to go through 3.5 years of Great Tribulation, they will only have to endure 35 days. There will be a 40-day judgment period that once again starts on the 17th day of Chesvan and ends during Hanukkah on December 3, 2021. Immediately after the tribulation, the sun is darkened, moon does not give its light and stars fall from the sky on December 4, 2021.

So, how do we know that this is correct and that there are not still 3 ½ years of Great Tribulation coming? Look at the signs in the sky. Jesus told us that the sun would be darkened, the moon not give its light and stars would fall from the sky when He returns with His people to start the New Millennium. We can see the blood moons on Jewish feast days from 2013 to 2015 and the solar eclipses at the start of the Biblical year and Feast of Trumpets in 2015 pointed us to the start of the Day of the Lord at the end of 2015 to the end of 2016. But we did not have the sign of the Second Coming found in Matthew 24 at that time, showing that the Lord always knew and planned that He would stop Daniel’s 70th week halfway through and re-start it 4 years later. He hid all of this in His Word like a huge puzzle, waiting for the time when we could finally put it all together in these last days. And then, in a final great twist to His amazing puzzle, He added an 8th day to Daniel’s 70th week and put the same sign again during Hanukkah that we saw in 2020.

Believe me, if you are left behind and have to endure the Great Tribulation, you are going to truly hope and pray that this timeline is correct because it is going to be far worse than anything you can imagine and most people won’t survive more than 40 days. Satan is being given back the authority that he lost and he is ready to destroy this planet and everyone on it. The Bride of Christ will be crowned as co-ruler of the earth on the 7th day of Hanukkah in 2021, which is the 266th day of the Biblical year. A human gestation period lasts for 266 days from conception to birth. She will be revealed to the world on the 7th day of Hanukkah, as in a Jewish wedding, the Bride is revealed to the waiting guests on the 7th day of the wedding when her veil is removed. The Bible says that all of creation is waiting for the sons of God to be revealed.

For those of you who are presenting a different timeline than what I am, I would like to just ask you if your timeline includes the sign of the sun being darkened, moon not giving its light and stars falling from the sky at the end of Daniel's 70th week? And does it also include the blood moons and solar eclipses from 2013 to 2015, pointing to the initial Day of the Lord that was to have started at the end of 2015? Do you find it coincidental that the 2 dates mentioned in Haggai 2 regarding the Lord shaking the heavens and the earth and bringing the desired of all nations to Himself were the 2 dates that Obama was chosen and then received the Nobel Peace Prize in 2009? And that exactly 1260 days later, Mr. Obama stood in what is considered by hundreds of millions of Christians around the world to be the most holy place on earth and stopped the daily sacrifice of praise and offering of thanksgiving from happening on that day? And that it just happened to be the 11th day of Nisan on the Jewish calendar, the very day that Jesus spoke to His disciples about the abomination that causes desolation? And I suppose it was also just a coincidence that counting back 1335 days from the start of Hanukkah in 2016 and 1260 days from the Day of Atonement in 2016 brings you to May 2, 2013, which ended a 40-day probationary period and 3-day fast for God to have mercy on America, both clearly foreshadowed to us in the Scriptures as a time when judgment was delayed and a nation was spared. Does your timeline also include the shortening of days that Jesus mentioned in Matthew 24 and the delay of the Bridegroom found in Matthew 25 and Revelation 10? And going back to my first and most important question – does your timeline show the sign of the sun being darkened, moon not giving its light and stars falling from the sky during the Second Coming of Christ to the earth on a Jewish festival? If not, then your timeline is incorrect. You must put all of the Scriptures together to see the whole puzzle. Scripture interprets Scripture and Scripture cannot be broken. The pieces must all fit into place or your timeline is incorrect.

The night is about to fall on this earth and you can already see the sun is setting. Many people can no longer go to work and a time is coming when no man can work. Jesus, the Light of the World, is about to take His beautiful and radiant Bride, also the Light of the World, to be with Himself, to a place He has prepared for her out of the serpent's reach, and then darkness or night will fall on the earth. He has gone to prepare a place for His Bride and He will receive her unto Himself so that she may be with Him. If you are not ready to stand before the Lamb with a pure heart as a radiant Bride, I ask you to please seek the Lord while He may be found. Prepare for what is about to happen on this earth. Prepare to meet the Lord. Prepare for those who may be left behind. Leave my materials for them to read. Prepare food and water and necessities because the time is very soon when they will not be able to buy, sell or trade without the Mark of the Beast. Ask Jesus into your heart today if you have not already done so. If you have, ask Him to reveal any sin in your life that is keeping you from fully walking in His Spirit and the joy of His salvation. This does not have to be a frightening time. This is a time to rejoice if you belong to the Bride of Christ! People get ready, Jesus is coming and soon we will be going home. The New Millennium is less than 4 months away and we will be crowned as co-rulers of the earth with our King Jesus for 1000 years. The meek shall inherit the earth.

So, maybe you are wondering why the Lord had me write this book and how it is supposed to save millions of people from the coming deception. Well, I don't actually know what the deception is going to be exactly, but Jesus said it could deceive even the elect, meaning even the unwise virgins who are left behind at the first rapture event and those who come to faith in Christ during this time of tribulation on the earth. I believe the deception will involve some sort of alien creature coming on the earth as is described in Revelation and the book of Joel. I believe that the Lord put all of these clues and hid them throughout the entire Bible, from Genesis to Revelation, so that those who are presented with the evidence from the Scriptures will have little to no doubt that what took place was in fact the rapture event and not an alien invasion or intervention of our planet. The Lord wants His people to know that this was all His plan from beginning to end and that He is in control, not Satan, not the New World Order or the Masons or the Illuminati or the aliens, or whoever. He wrote the book. He knows the beginning from the end and He is in control. He wants those left behind to know that the rapture took place exactly when it was supposed to and for them to have peace knowing that there will be a second rapture event after just 35 days and that the Second Coming of Christ to the earth will happen on December 5, 2021. There is no 7-year tribulation. There isn't even a 3 ½ or 3 year tribulation. The Lord in His great mercy and love has shortened the days to just 42 days – think about that, from 42 months to 42 days! What a God of mercy! And if He hadn't, no flesh would have survived what was coming. Nobody would have been alive after a 3 or 3 ½ year tribulation period, that's how bad this is going to be. In fact, there won't even be that many people still alive in December 2021 – most people will have been raptured or killed by that point in time.

The last thing I'd like to talk about is how to prepare for what is coming. The most important thing you can do is to get your heart right with the Lord. Ask Him to reveal any hidden sin in your heart, wrong motives, wrong thoughts, wrong behaviors, anything that is displeasing to Him. Ask him to purify your heart and forgive your sins and help you to overcome your sinful behaviors. Next, you need to warn your family and friends. They may laugh at you now, but in a few days, they will be so glad you took the time to warn them of what was coming and they will be shocked when these things take place exactly when you warned them that they would happen. Thirdly, you should print off as many copies of my book and make copies of my videos for those left behind. I personally believe there may not be electricity in most parts of the States, so hard copies of my book would be the best thing to make. You can download my book and all of my videos for free. I encourage you to not wait until the last minute to do this because at any time my book or videos could be taken down and removed from the internet and you will have no chance then to make copies, so please at least download them now. All of the links for this are below in the description box. And lastly, you should prepare for anyone in your family or among your friends who might be left behind. Since they will not be prepared, you should do everything you can to prepare for them. Scripture is clear that a time is coming when no man can work and that if you do not take the mark of the beast, you will be unable to buy, sell or trade anything. You need to store up at least 35 days worth of food, water and other necessities if you have the ability to do so. Imagine being without any ability to buy what you need to survive for 35 days and think of what you would need to get through it. Matthew 25 shows us that not all of the virgins or Christians make the first rapture event. Many lukewarm Christians who have allowed sin to creep into their lives will be left behind so please don't think that just because everyone in your family goes to church or has said a prayer of salvation that they will make the first rapture event. Many will be left behind to be purified.

For those of you who have been with me for the last 9 years since I started this, thank you for your patience with me as I have tried to take the puzzle pieces the Lord was giving to me one at a time and fit them into the correct place. Once I figured out where the 4-year delay of the fig tree piece fit, the puzzle became much more clear and the pieces all began to fit. I believe the puzzle is now finished. God bless you all and I look forward to meeting many of you soon on the other side.
